Found: A granite stone, 18x12x6 inches, lying loose, no visible marks. Found an overgrown mound of stone 4 foot north of granite in an old fence line extending north / south with an old axe cut cedar post 2 feet south. I reset the granite stone upright, oriented north / south along east side of mound, 2 feet north of old fence post, in a hollow indent. Stone was likely dislodged during fencing. This position may be disputed by survey / testimony.
